

August / September 2014

German as a Foreign Language: Summer Intensive Programme

Target Group

Students without German as a first language
(student identification required)

Duration

25 August – 12 September 2014

This three-week programme is scheduled before the start of the autumn semester.

Location

Sprachenzentrum der Universität Basel
Kornhausgasse 2
CH-4051 Basel

Course Fee

CHF 680 for 58 lessons (includes cultural activities; excludes accommodation, meals and course materials)

Registration

14 May 2014 - 15 August 2014

Requirements

Language courses in the programme are held at different levels (beginner to intermediate). Prospective participants with previous knowledge are given the link to an online placement test, the results of which have to be made available to the Language Centre before courses commence.

Course Contents

In the mornings participants attend an intensive language course suiting their individual level, complemented by conversation and pronunciation training. Academic and cultural events take place on two to three afternoons per week. The Summer Intensive Programme introduces you to Basel as an attractive study location and cultural region.
